

Jobmate is an ergonomic mouse that prevents and lessens pain and strain in the wrists, arms, shoulders and neck. You work centred with your hands close to the keyboard, resting on the wrist support. It is simple to vary your working posture and the roller bar allows you to control the cursor with one or several fingers at the same time. For example, you can have both hands on the keyboard while simultaneously controlling the mouse. Jobmate is easy to use and you will quickly learn the 5 button functions. Jobmate has a very responsive and precise roller bar. The length can be adjusted if you prefer a larger control surface by removing the cover at the right side of the roller bar. Jobmate fits all keyboards and has a wrist support that can be wiped clean as needed.
